About Us: After several years of coaching his son's youth basketball team, Chuck Osborne was inspired to create ONE Atlanta Basketball in 2016 to give young children from across Atlanta a chance to play basketball together on a level playing field without the constraints of traditional league costs, circumstances, or geographic proximity.

There is officially no cost to play with ONE Atlanta; the program is 100% funded by donations from those who believe in its mission. For questions or more information please contact Patrick Shokpeka and One Atlanta at oneatlball@gmail.com.
